ACCESS AND PARKING DETAILS

MEMBER PARKING

If you are arriving at the Club in a chauffeur-driven car or cab you may get dropped off at the front porch of Wing A and take the P elevators (right in front of the ICBC Bank) at the lobby to Level 4. If you are driving you may drop your car off with The Indus Club valet located between Wing A & C and take the P elevators in Wing A to Level 4.

In the unlikely event that the parking is full, you will be informed by the valet and you may make use of the Pay-n-Park area located within the building's premises.

At the time of departure from the Club, to help save time, you may inform the Guest Relations Executives in advance before you wish to leave for the valet to arrange for your car.

GUEST PARKING

Guests arriving in a chauffeur-driven car may get dropped off at the front porch of Wing A and take the P elevators at the lobby to Level 4. Guests arriving in a self-driven car may take advantage of the Pay-n-Park area located within the building's premises or make use of the ample parking opportunities available in the neighbourhood.

MEMBERSHIP CARD AND AUTHENTICATION

MEMBERSHIP CARD AND AUTHENTICATION

The Membership Card is an RFID card which is a contactless smart card. It is touch enabled and does not need to be swiped. This can be used to access the Club and authenticate payments against the usage of amenities and facilities.

For your convenience, our access systems are also bio-metric enabled. You are encouraged to register your bio-metrics which is a one-time process and this enables you to access the Club at the touch of a finger. To register your bio-metrics, do contact a Guest Relations Executive when you are at the Club.

AMENITIES

MEMBER CONDUCT, DRESS CODE & GUEST POLICY

Members are encouraged to entertain up to three guests and the guest fee for each accompanying guest is Rs. 100/-

A Member may entertain more than three guests in the case of a private event/party, a dining reservation or a meeting room booking that has been confirmed in advance.

Each guest must be signed in by the host Member.

Members and their guests must be appropriately attired at all times. For the purpose of determining what is appropriate, the GM's decision will be final. However, at the minimum, Members and their guests are expected to be attired during business hours in business formal, business casual or national dress (except for fitness centre and spa where collarless T-shirts and athletic wear are permitted). Closed shoes only, for men and preferably for women too.

Members introducing guests to the Club are wholly responsible for the conduct of their guests. Members must ensure that their guests abide by the Rules of the Club.

Guests may not remain in the Club once the host Member has left.

Only guests above the age of 18 shall be permitted (except on Sundays, designated family holidays and during club events when children above the age of 8 shall be permitted). Guests under the age of 21 are not permitted in the Bar.

Members and their guests may use laptop computers, tablets and mobile telephones across the Club (with the exception of the formal dining restaurant and auditorium) but not in a manner disturbing to other Members.

Members and their guests are requested to be sensitive to other Club Members especially while using the Riviera Lounge so as to ensure that they don't occupy larger seating arrangements than is appropriate.

For the convenience of Members, a 10% service charge is added on all billing. Hence, tipping is not necessary.
